

LIFE'S SERIOUS SIDE AS WELL AS ITS AMUSEMENTS MAKES THE DAY'S CAMERA NEWS

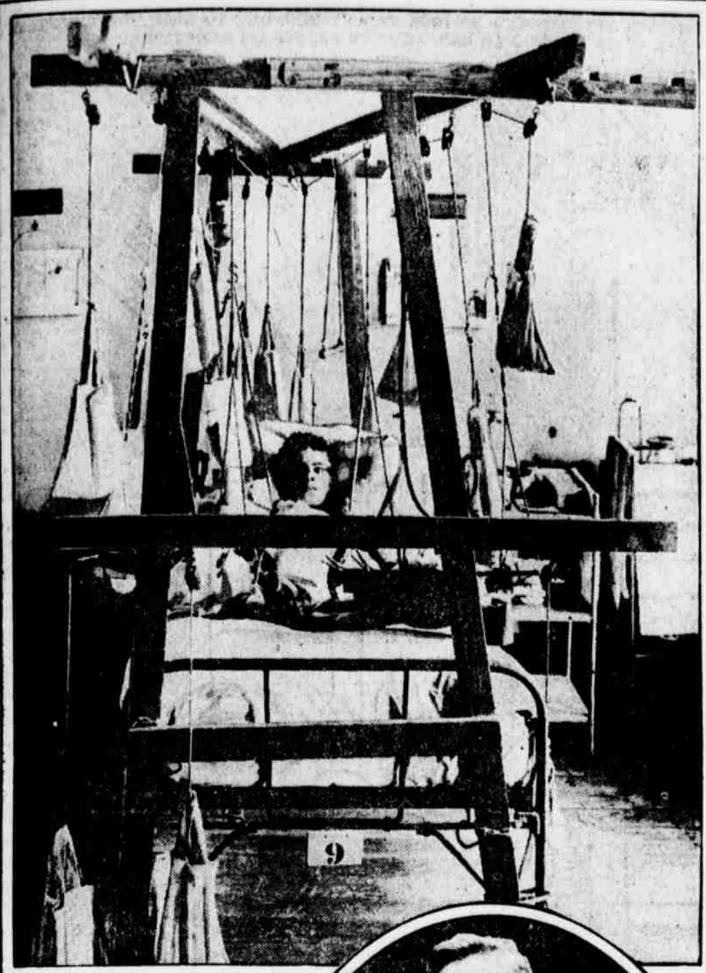

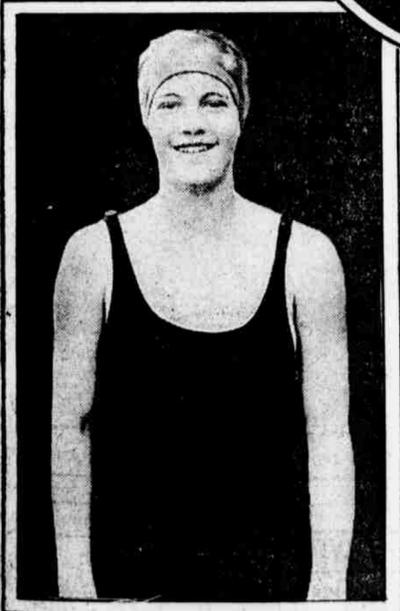

Photo by Int. Film Service.
HUMAN SALVAGE
WORK BY AMERICANS
IN PARIS

By use of the most complicated bit of apparatus yet devised for the purpose, the Military Hospital of the American Ambulance is holding in place fractured arms and legs of soldier wounded.

A SWIMMING CHAMPION AND A CHAMPION-MAKER

Gertrude Artelt, new 100-yard national titleholder, and Charles Braun, assistant coach at the Philadelphia Turngemeinde swimming school.

A BEVY OF GRACEFUL LITTLE ENTERTAINERS
The "Jolly Girls" of the Race Street Pier Recreation Center execute a pretty hoop drill at their final carnival and frolic.

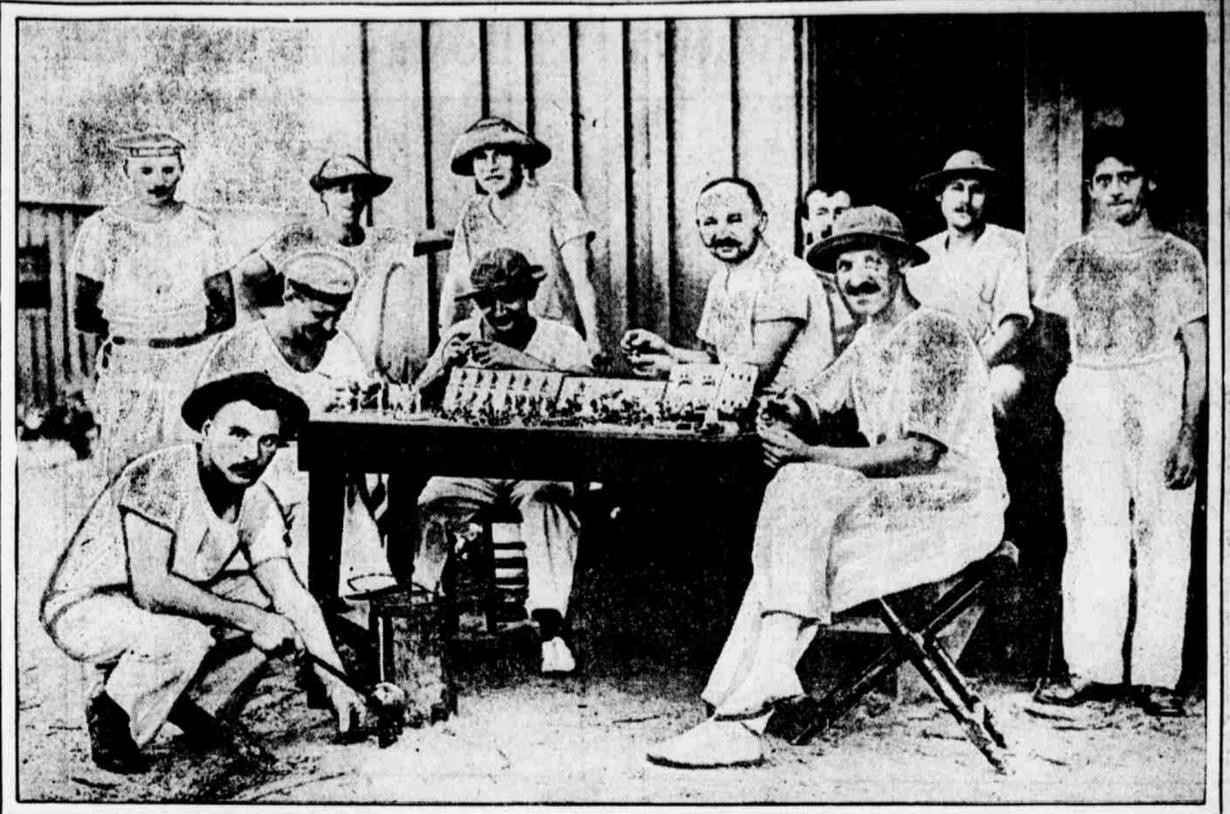

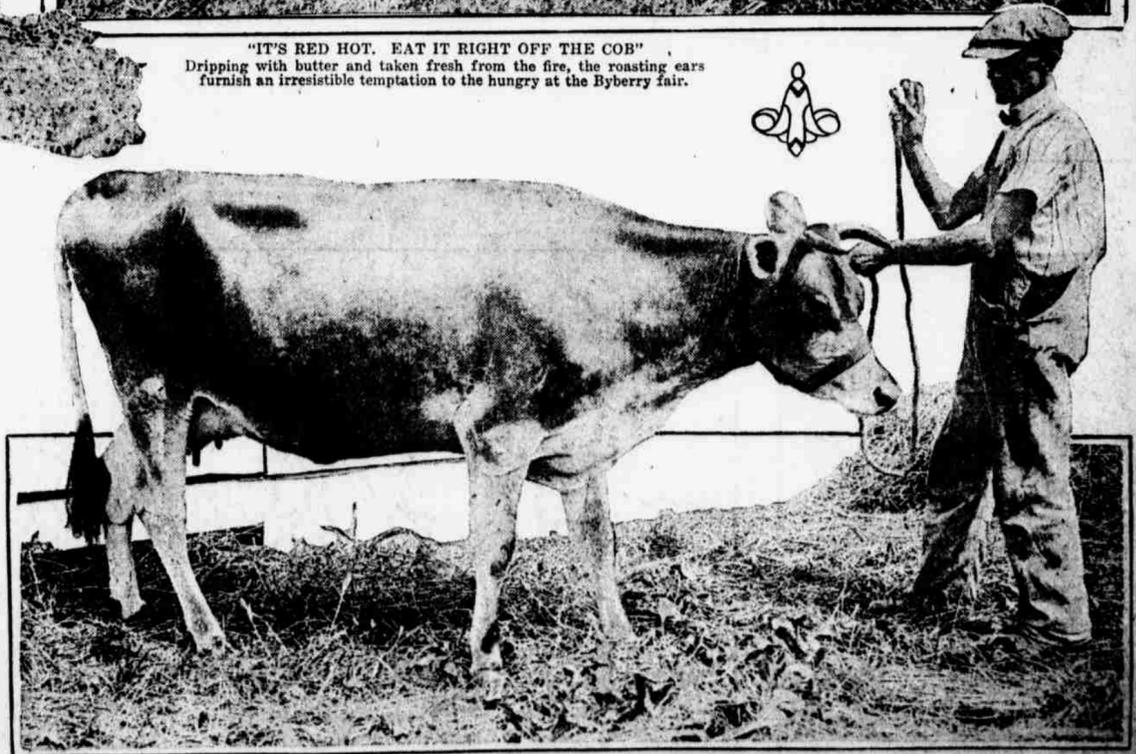

Photo by International Film Service.
INTERNED GERMAN TARS MAKE LEADEN SAMMEES AND POILUS
Sailors from the raider Kronprinz Wilhelm, sent from Philadelphia to Fort McPherson, Ga., are spending their prison days making toy soldiers for American kiddies. The proceeds are used to buy tobacco.

"IT'S RED HOT. EAT IT RIGHT OFF THE COB"
Dripping with butter and taken fresh from the fire, the roasting ears furnish an irresistible temptation to the hungry at the Byberry fair.

HERE WE ARE AGAIN
Byberry visitors during "Fair Week" find two old friends on hand to greet and amuse them.

A CHAMPION OF BYBERRY'S STOCK EXHIBIT
Oxford Knight Helen carries off the honors in the cattle competition at the Philadelphia County Fair. She took similar honors twice before for her owner, Dr. J. W. Van Sant.